

Business Opportunities with the Bureau of Land Management And The U.S. Department of the Interior

The Bureau of Land Management (BLM) and Department of the Interior (DOI) are now acquiring goods and services electronically using the Internet and the Interior Department Electronic Acquisition System. The BLM solicitations for goods and services valued less than $100,000 and commercial item solicitations less than $5,000,000 under the commercial item test pilot program will be posted on a centrally located electronic web-board at <http://ideasec.usgs.gov>. You may also view the forecast of BLM annual requirements (Advanced Procurement Plan) at <http://www.blm.gov/natacq>. When you access the web site, you can:

1. Review all requirements posted by DOI Bureaus and Offices;
2. Search for any open Request for Quotations (RFQ);
3. Read the RFQs;
4. Quote before the posted closing dates; and
5. Receive electronic awards and notices.

There is no cost to you for this service. Competing for business with the BLM and the DOI electronically is painless and simple. To take advantage of future opportunities electronically with the BLM and DOI, you must:

1. Obtain a valid Dun & Bradstreet Number (D&B) from Dun & Bradstreet through the Internet (<http://www.dnb.com>) or by calling them at 1-800-333-0505. Only vendors with valid D&Bs may submit a quote;
2. Register your firm on the DOI website at: <http://ideasec.usgs.gov>.

Central registration will not only alleviate the need for you to submit separate bidders application to each office, the information can be used to notify you when we have a requirement within your capability. You have control over updating the information about your firm so that we can match your capabilities electronically with our needs.

If you download and install either the Microsoft Internet Explorer Version 4.0 or Netscape Version 4.0, you will receive the best results. The DOI website has HTML 4.0 extensions. The DOI decided to use the latest technology so that the system is fast and easy for you to use.

Public Rooms with access to a personal computer are available at many BLM or DOI offices. Your local Small Business Administration should also be able to help you and provide access to a personal computer if you do not have one. Please contact the following BLM offices if you have questions or need assistance:
